Buildings and infrastructure contribute close to 40% of global CO2 emissions - and the urban population is expected to drastically increase in the future. The value chain in the built environment has a vital role to play in responding to the current climate urgency.

We invite you to participate in our full day event to advance the transition towards clean and healthy construction by leveraging on green public procurement and innovation.

The focus will be on construction materials and the construction site, including non road mobile machinery.
